Presented by the Editor and Staff and published by the Associated Students of Walla Walla High School.

Dear Students,

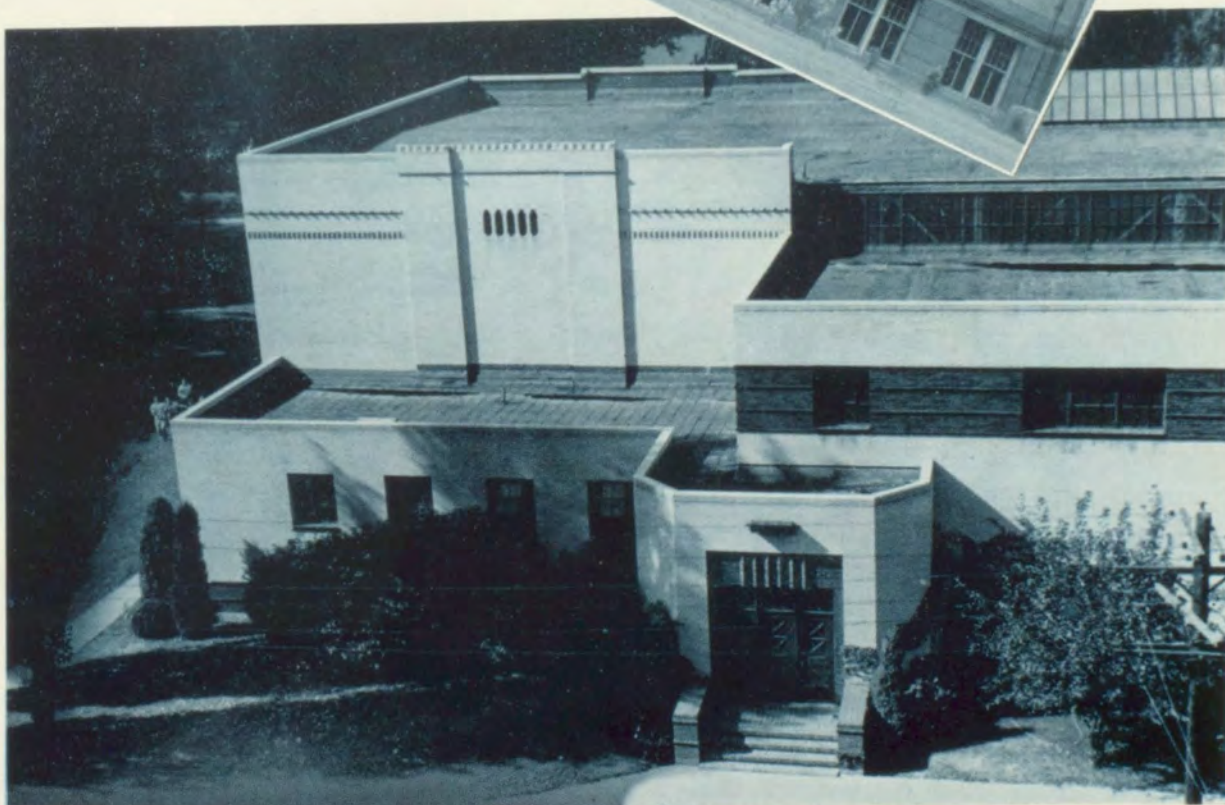

For twenty-nine years, I, the Walla Walla Blue Devil, have been the symbol of life at Wa-Hi. This year I decided to put my comments in with those of the Royal Blue Staff—for who can know you students better than I.

I dance at your frolics, cheer at your games, worry about your exams, for everything you do is part of me. You will graduate, but you will leave unremovable marks upon me. I've always been proud of us, and this year I'm exceptionally proud—I can't contain myself any longer. Every year we improve ourselves and we improve the school with us.

I hope you like this book of memories; I hope you'll look at it now and remember many happy times and ten years from now I hope you'll still be reminded of them when you turn these pages. The staff and I have tried to make this book for you—here it is at last—from us to you.

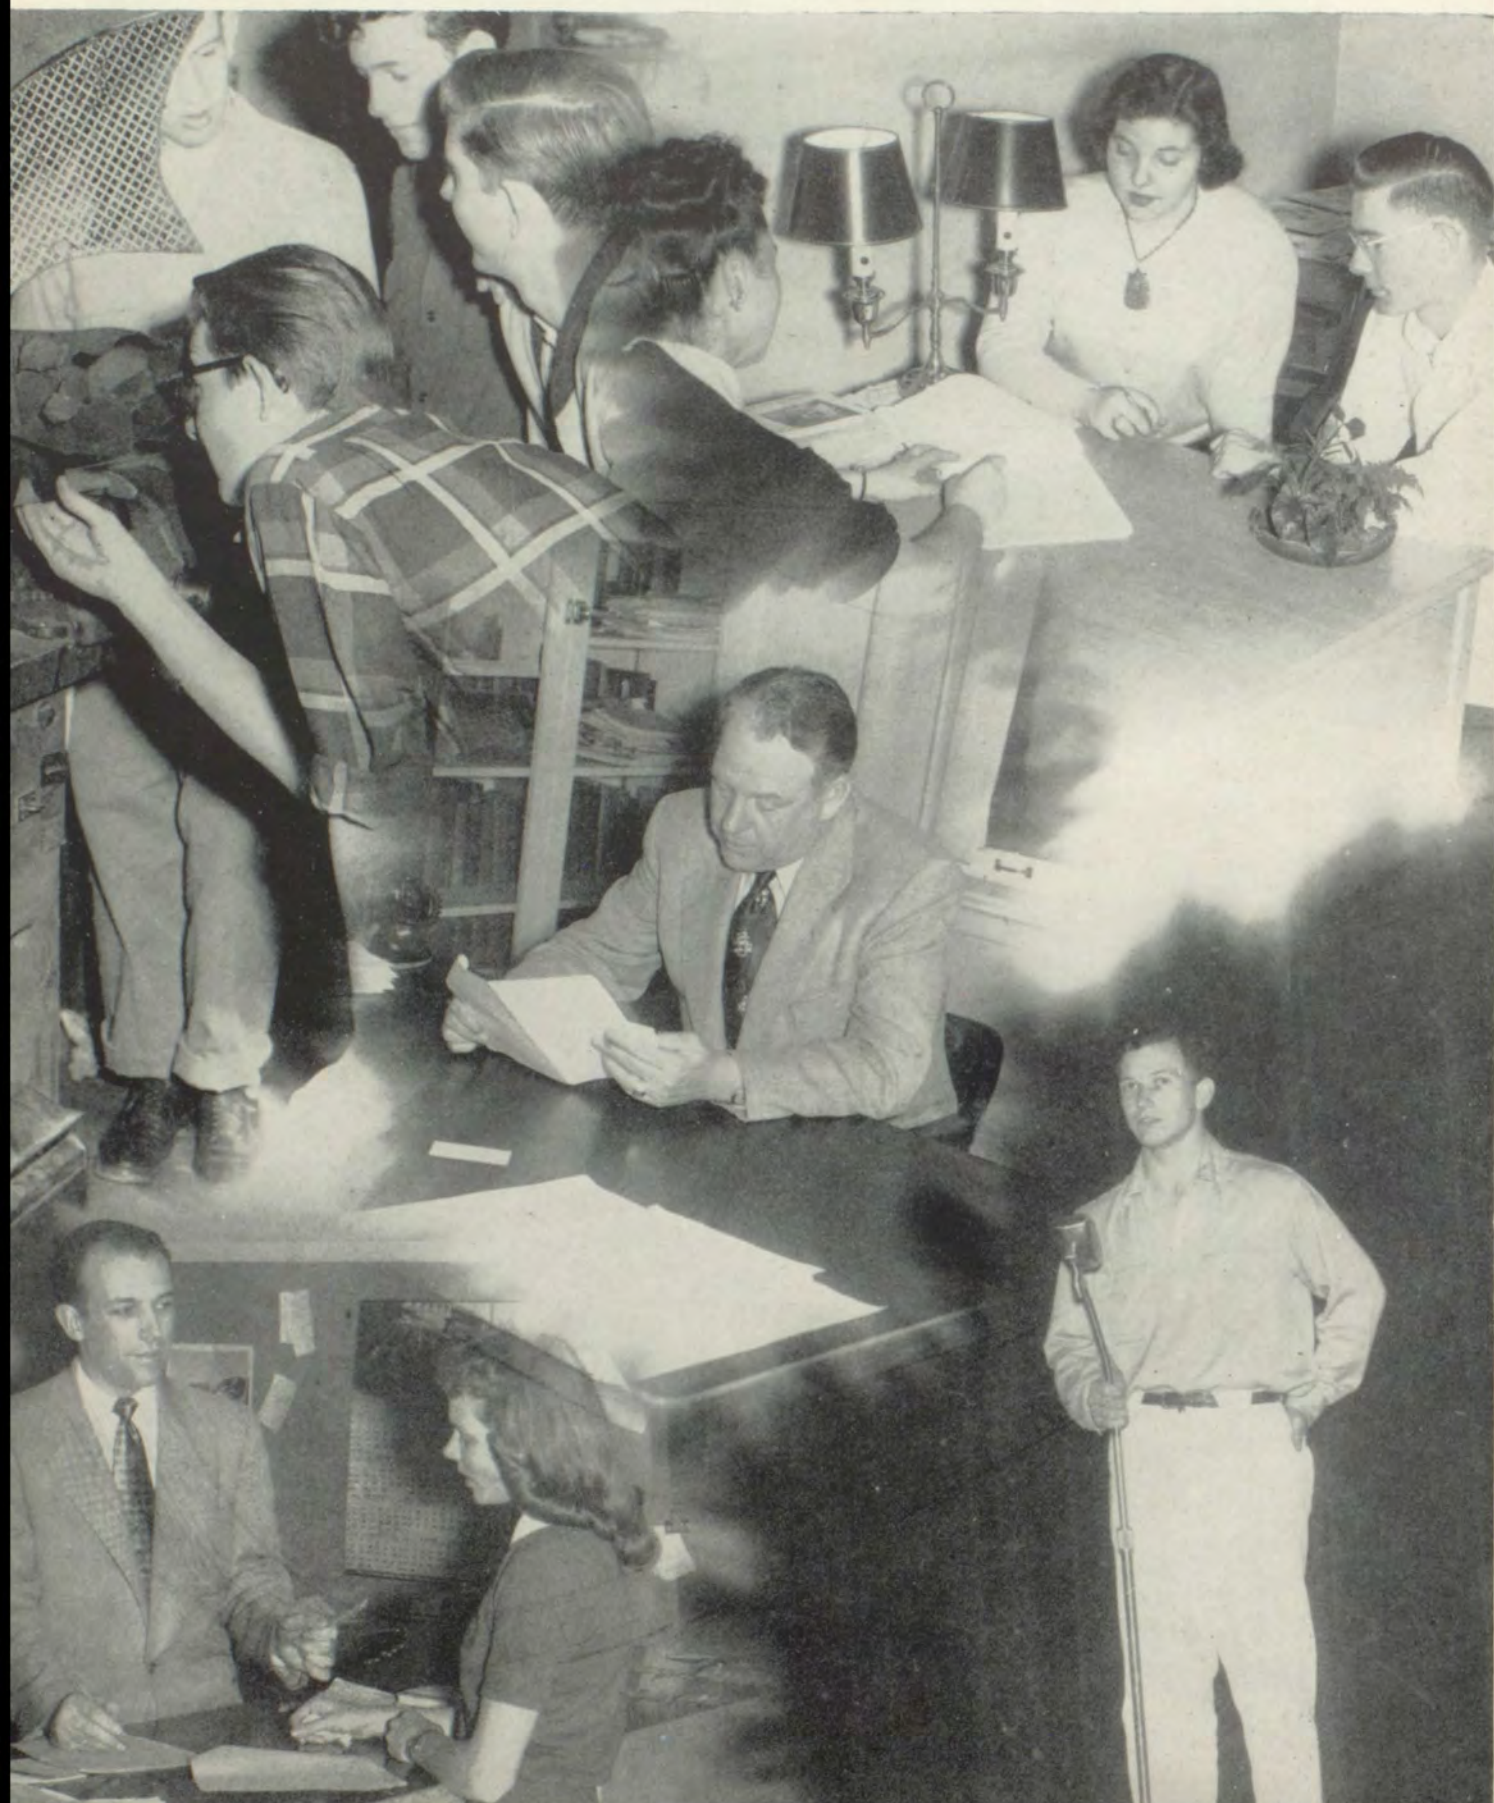

Sincerely,

BLUE DEVIL

Administration . . .

If I were to ask each student in Wa-Hi this question, "What, as a student, would you rather do or be than anything else?" I should probably get a variety of responses. One might say, "To make a varsity athletic team." Another's ambition would be to be selected to the National Honor Society. Others might hope to have the lead in the school play; while still others would want to be an officer in the ROTC or the Sponsors Corps. No matter what the decision, the achieving of that ambition or those ambitions has a two-fold value. First, through the effort, study, and sacrifice necessary in gaining your objective, you, as an individual, will benefit. You are a better scholar, athlete, public speaker, musician, or leader because of this achievement. But not only you, as an individual, profited from your experiences; but in so doing, you have bettered your school to the degree that you have improved yourself. You have developed school spirit by developing yourself. The better the individual, the better the group. This has been proven by your F.F.A. Chapter, by the success of your athletic teams, musical organizations, and by your advances in student government, as well as in many other activities.

School spirit, then, is the total of individual effort and achievement. As evidenced for the present school year, there is just cause for you and for me to be proud of the Walla Walla High School.

ARTHUR D. JONES
Superintendent of Schools

The Royal Blue is an unusual book. When you first receive your copy and you have anxiously thumbed through it, your primary interest is to cover all the blank spaces with signatures and comments of your friends. Then you look it over more carefully before putting it away to be temporarily forgotten. But the unusual thing is that when you pick it up again five years from now, it means much more than it did before. As the years go by, the pictures, the write-ups, and the mementos of friends become more and more meaningful. It is one of the few books that you will ever own that will become more precious with the passing of time.

I want to congratulate the staff of the Royal Blue for the excellent job which they have done. They have shown a great deal of energy and resourcefulness in recording the many activities of the past year. The rest of the student body deserves equal credit for the sincerity of their efforts in making this an outstanding school. And to the graduating class—continue to meet the goals that you have set for yourselves with determination so that when you sit down to talk over the past with your Royal Blue, it will be a pleasant and satisfying experience.

ALLEN REYNOLDS
Administrative Assistant

The Royal Blue is a record of the many accomplishments of Wa-Hi students during the school year 1952-53.

Many records have been established this year to which we might point with pride. I am pleased over the fine record of good school citizenship and the business-like way students have handled their school affairs. I am proud of the added interest in academic achievement and the many successes in extra-curricular activities. It has been a school year of growth and achievement.

Let me congratulate the Senior Class for its outstanding leadership, citizenship, and scholastic abilities. Much of the success of a school year depends upon the seniors. Thanks for your cooperation, and the best of everything to all of you.

ROBERT P. KLAVANO
Principal

A school year should be an example of "Democracy in Action" as students and faculty work together in both classes and activities. Each year, Wa-Hi is approaching closer to this ideal. I have been especially pleased this year with the democratic spirit which has prevailed. Students must be commended for their assumption of greater responsibilities. I was impressed by the student interest created in the Presidential mock election. You seniors will be eligible to vote in the next campaign four years hence, and I trust that you will show the same interest.

Student attitudes have improved; and more intelligent planning for the future has been accomplished through your earnest endeavors.

Congratulations to the annual staff for another excellent production of the Royal Blue.

Best wishes and good luck, seniors. It has been a pleasure to know and work with you.

Walla Walla High School continued to grow in 1952-53; and to head the large student body for the year were John Knowles, president; Shorty Meek, vice-president, who later resigned, and then Jack Brown was appointed for the office; Sharon Davenport, secretary; and Doris Jolstead, treasurer. The student government of Wa-Hi strove to work in harmony with all the students, and improve relationships between teachers and students. Though many problems arose for the three departments, executive, legislative, and judicial, all were met in a satisfactory way.

The Girls' Federation is an organization composed of all the girls in Wa-Hi, who worked together as a whole. Without all the girls working together as they did in 1952-53 no accomplishments could have been made and the federation would not have had the successful year it did.

Many of the activities of the federation this year were the same as in past years. The Freshman Frolic, the Transfer Potluck, the Girls' Federation Party, the Pan-Hellenic Tea, the Eighth Grade Visitation Day, the Senior Reception, the monthly assemblies, and the auction and cake sales were among these; but during the past year other activities and accomplishments have been recorded by the Girls' Federation.

One of these activities was working with the faculty members for Open House. Following this, the federation decorated and served for the football banquet.

Four after-school social hours were given by the federation and were put on in the lounge by each of the four classes. They were held in December, February, April, and May.

A big accomplishment of the past year was the federation banquet. It was for all the Girls' Federation office holders and their mothers. It was held near Valentine's Day and proved to be quite successful.

New blue denim drapes with covered cornice boards added greatly to the girls' lounge's appearance this year. Also in the spring, a new mural was made by the Art Department for the lounge.

An accomplishment which pleased many was the adoption of a Girls' Federation creed by the Wa-Hi Girls' Federation. Every girl in school received a copy and the creed was framed and hung in the lounge.

Boys' Fed. brought the students entertainment . . .

The most outstanding achievements of the Boys' Federation during this past year were the noon movie program and a revision of the Blue Book.

The noon movies were presented during the winter months as a school service. These movies provided good entertainment for the students and cut down on the congestion in the halls at noon. They also helped very much in the financing of the Blue Book. Included among the films shown were "Cheaper by the Dozen," "Sea Hawk," "Sweet Rosie O'Grady," "State Fair," "Panic in the Streets," "Guadalcanal Diary," "Broken Arrow," "I'd Climb the Highest Mountain," and "Three Came Home."

The Blue Book was first published six years ago and contains information on all school activities. It is of great value in helping freshmen and transfers become a real part of Wa-Hi. However, many parts of the book were out of date. A completely new edition was published in March.

The boys' intramural program, under the direction of LaRay Davidson, had a very successful year. With teams selected on a homeroom basis, competition was keen in touch football, basketball, volleyball, and softball.

The Boys' Federation cooperated with the Girls' Federation in planning and carrying out the first frolic of the year. This frolic is given especially for the freshmen and other new students at Wa-Hi. The Boys' Federation also played an active part in conducting the 8th Grade Visitation.

Under the direction of the Boys' Federation adviser, Mr. Ledbetter, a job placement program was carried out on a limited schedule.

During the year, letters were sent to those boys who were out of school for an extended period. News of what was going on at Wa-Hi and a copy of the Daily Journal usually comprised the letters.

Boys' Federation assemblies were also presented during the year. A film on the East-West Shrine game, a faculty-student volleyball game, and a film, "Shooting Safety," by the Washington State Department of Game, provided good entertainment for the boys.

Under very capable leadership, and with spirit of enthusiasm and interest in the future, the Boys' Federation completed the year with numerous accomplishments and good times to its credit.

. . . As did many student government functions.

To prepare for future years when they too will vote, Wa-Hi students participated in a timely, interesting, and often rowdy election campaign in the fall of 1952. Student leaders Sandra Ritchie and Shari Fain headed the Democratic and Republican parties, respectively.

Posters were mounted all over the hallways, noon assemblies with student speakers and talent were given, and campaign songs and slogans were written. Competition and opposition was keen as many heated arguments arose.

Finally on Election Day Wa-Hi held a vote, and as in the national election, the Republicans won by a large majority. Although it provided a good time and a great deal of fun—election time also taught the students many valuable facts about their government and their presidential candidates.

"ALL THAT IS NEEDED IS THE POPCORN!" "MASTERMINDS' CONVENTON"—B. Brunton, B.

from their four years
at Wa-Hi.*

Once more the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" fade away into the past, and the class of '53 prepares for the future. Whatever it may have in store for them—hardship or happiness—they have had their fun in their years at Wa-Hi. Yes, these four years shall never be forgotten.

During the first semester, Bill Till presided over the senior class, with Fred Santler, vice-president; Mary Roberts, secretary; and Stania Lott, treasurer. Stanley Hastings served as president the second semester; with Dick Jacky, vice-president; Cecilia Broome, secretary, and Stania Lott, treasurer. Senior representatives on Student Court were Bob Brunton, Chief Justice; Joan Richards, first semester, and Pat Gerfen, second semester.

The class's scholastic record was kept at the top by Valedictorian Robert Allen, who had a 3.85 grade average. This year there were two Salutatorians, Janet Davis and Edgar Parrott. Although Edgar Parrott had the higher grade average, Janet Davis gave the Salutatory speech, as Edgar, a transfer from Baker, Oregon, entered Wa-Hi the first quarter of his senior year. In all, 36 members of the senior class experienced the thrill of being tapped for National Honor Society.

The Girls' Federation was headed by Carol Hill. The senior representatives the first semester on Girls' Council were Joan Hume and Jackie Struthers, while Grace Carlisle served on Girls' Cabinet. Second semester, Doris Jolstead and Shirley Schoenrock were elected to Girls' Council, with Sharon Davenport being on Girls' Cabinet.

David Klicker led the Boys' Federation. Dean Derby and Bob Johnson were the senior representatives on Boys' Cabinet the first and second semester respectively.

The senior play, "Kind Lady," starred Pat Bigelow and Greg Cowan. The all school play had many senior cast members. Leads for the operetta, "H.M.S. Pinafore," were secured by seniors Dean Derby, John Knowles, Stanley Hastings, Donna Lobdell, Pat Light, Bob Spies, and Jackie Struthers.

Senior sneaks are always a great deal of fun and this year's was no exception. Under the able direction of Mrs. Guenther and Mr. Klavano, the class of '53 ended their very successful year with the annual Senior Ball.

THE JUNIORS learned to accept responsibility, for they realized they would soon be the leaders of the school.

Though they did not have many class projects the juniors were indeed very active. Students elected to govern the class the first semester were Ed Carter, president; Eddie Epstein, vice-president; Bob Fouts, secretary; and Terry Tucker, treasurer. Boys' and Girls' Federation representatives were Jerry Weaver and Ronnie Riehl, Boys' Cabinet; Betty Jo Burnap, Girls' Cabinet; and Myrna Moore and Janice Owsley, Girls' Council. Second semester officers were Eddie Epstein, president; Dick Mobley, vice-president; Annette Cote', secretary; Jerry Rice, treasurer. Jerry Weaver and Ronnie Riehl were again on Boys' Cabinet, while Marlene Fagg was elected to Girls' Cabinet, and Sheri Koehler and Pearl Livengood were elected to Girls' Council.

The juniors also took an active part in the A.S.B. government with Pearl Livengood and Don Shafer serving on Student Court the first semester and Joyce Berney and Dick Mobley serving the second semester.

Both the first and second semesters, juniors held the office of vice-president in Legislative Assembly; Eddie Epstein, first semester, and Annette Cote', second semester.

A good share of the junior class rate high scholastically. Sixty-one were on the honor roll at the end of the first semester with fourteen straight "A" students. Two juniors of which the whole class is very proud have 4.0 averages. This outstanding record goes to Eddie Epstein and Carolyn Reynolds.

With many juniors participating in choir, a number of ensembles had junior members, and the Triple Trio ensemble was composed entirely of junior girls. Chita Cousins should have special recognition for she was the very capable choir accompanist for the year.

Junior students also worked hard on the Royal Blue and Journal staffs with some keynote positions being held by them. The production of the all-school play and operetta were aided by the juniors.

The football, basketball, baseball, and track teams all had junior members, and not to be forgotten were the juniors in the sports fields of tumbling, skiing, tennis, and golf.

Throughout the year the class was under the advisership of Mrs. Gallivan, Mrs. Conway, and Mr. Reed, and with their help the juniors presented the very successful Junior Prom in April. To conclude the year many hours were spent decorating for the commencement and baccalaureate services, an annual project of the junior class.

FIRST SEMESTER OFFICERS—T. Tucker, E. Carter, E. Epstein, B. Fouts.

SECOND SEMESTER OFFICERS—D. Mobley, A. Cote', E. Epstein, J. Rice.

"FUTURE HOMEMAKERS?"—D. Gohlman, B. Becker, J. Weaver.

"HMMM-MMM GOOD!"—E. Lintner, S. Forrey, S. Schoenrock, J. Mitchell, M. Fagg, M. Moore.

"DEEP CONCENTRATION TAKING PLACE"—Sixth Period Typing Class.

JUNIORS—Sharon Adams, Gene Aliverti, Bob Allen.

THE SOPHOMORES, full of pep and energy were in a world of their own having a year of wholesome fun.

The class of '55, with Mr. Bisnett and Mr. Partin as advisers, was credited with being one of the best of Wa-Hi's sophomore classes.

As officers for the first semester, serving very capably, were Stan Dicus, president; Allen Wetzel, vice-president; Gail Anderson, secretary-treasurer; Jim Farrel and Paul Dague, Boys' Cabinet representatives; Susan Timmons, Girls' Cabinet representative; Nancy Powers and Marilyn Spray, Girls' Council representatives. Those serving on Student Court were Paul Dague and Eleanor Whitney.

The second semester officers were Al Jentzsch, president; Allen Wetzel, vice-president; Marilyn Spray, secretary-treasurer; Boys' Cabinet representatives, Jim Ferrel and Paul Dague; Girls' Cabinet representative, Sharon McLeod; Girls Council, Carol Lutton and Susan Timmons. Phil Stoller was a member of the ski team and participated in many of the meets at Spout Springs. Many other sophomore boys were active in the "B" squad teams.

Ronnie Lou Nalder and Bill Anderson were elected to the Yell Squad. Chosen as flag swingers were Janice Baker and Elizabeth Roberts.

At the end of the first semester there were 70 students on the honor roll, with five straight "A" students among them.

The girls put on a party for all the girls of the Girls' Federation which was quite a success.

The musical ability of the sophomore class was very high. A large percentage of them were in choir, advanced chorus, band, orchestra, and other small groups.

It is agreed it was a very successful year for the sophomores with great promise for the coming year.

THE FRESHMEN, young and inexperienced, ended their first year at Wa-Hi and look forward to being "grown-up" sophomores.

The freshman class got off to a successful start and kept it up throughout the school year. The first semester class officers were Johnny Stewart, president; Robin Beck, vice-president; Ann Shepherd, secretary; and Jerry McVay, treasurer. The second semester officers were Tommy Page, president; Shannon Tompkins, vice-president; Jane Ann Sivertson, secretary; Joy Davidson, treasurer.

Barbara Brunton and Beverly Hill were the representatives to Girls' Council the first semester, and Mary Jane Penfield was the freshman on Girls' Cabinet. The second semester, Maida Blue and Janet Jo Davison were elected for Girls' Council, and Beverly Hill was elected for Girls' Cabinet. On Boys' Cabinet the first and second semester were Bill Weber and Terry Minkiewicz. Student Court Justices from the freshman class were Susan Gilmore and Johnny Stewart, first semester; Jane Ann Sivertson and Wesley Farley, second semester. The class advisers for the year were Mr. McBride, Mr. Wooten, and Mr. Wadsworth, who did a fine job working with the freshmen.

The freshmen proved that they have intelligence in their group with sixty students appearing on the first semester honor roll. Of these, seven were straight "A" students.

The freshman boys had good seasons in football, track, basketball, and also with many turning out for tumbling and baseball. A rooting section was organized during basketball season by the freshman girls for the freshman squad which added pep and spirit to their games.

In the vocal department, the frosh, under the direction of Mr. McGrath, came up with a new idea. About twenty girls, including a few from the Advanced Chorus, joined the Freshman Boys' Glee for a mixed chorus. The idea worked out very well, producing an outstanding group. The girls in the Freshman Girls' Glee also did a fine job in the music department.

All in all the timid little freshmen had a wonderful first year at Wa-Hi and hope to have another next year.

FIRST SEMESTER OFFICERS—R. Beck, J. Stewart, A. Shepard.

SECOND SEMESTER OFFICERS—J. Sivertson, S. Tompkins, T. Page, J. Davidson.

"... AND STEAK AT 80c LBI"—B. Hill, S. Adams, B. Jones, D. Lobdell.

"HEAVE HO"—Freshman boys exercising.

"BARBERSHOP QUARTET PLUS ONE"—S. Tompkins, J. Stewart, G. Redfield, D. Castoldi, W. Weaver.

Without the Royal Blue staff

EDITOR
Carol Neisess

"Through effort comes an accomplishment well done," might be considered the thought of the 1952-1953 Royal Blue staff as they worked continuously through the year to bring the students their year-book in the spring.

COPY EDITOR
Carol Hill

Dividing their time between the copy and make-up staffs were Sue Borum, Marilyn Golden, Sharon Van Dorn, Marilyn Yenney, Virginia Gobble, Joan Hosfelt, Nancy McAdams, Billie Marie Arbuckle, Janice Barer, and Sandra Epstein. Marilyn Golden was the proof reader for all copy, and Sharon Van Dorn was in charge of the index.

we could have no ROYAL BLUE...

Pat Gerfen headed the business staff which included Renee Ring, Betty Grueneich, and Norma Simons. The 1952 graduating class gave the money left in their treasury at the end of last year to the Royal Blue, so this was the first time the staff had extra funds available at the start of the year. The budget still had to be balanced though, and the main projects to raise money were selling mums during Homecoming and sponsoring the Royal Blue Ball.

Carol Neisess, Carol Hill, Renee Ring, Pat Gerfen, Ed Carter, and Dan Clem were the Royal Blue staff members who along with Miss Gray, adviser, attended the annual Yearbook Conference held on the University of Washington campus in Seattle, October 11. The group returned with days of enjoyment behind them and many new ideas to make the annual better in 1952-53.

Always working with the members of the staff in the production of the yearbook was their adviser, Miss Ruth Gray, and the staff wishes to express their appreciation to her, for they could not have done so well without her.

... and without the Journal Staff

Peeking in the tiny cubbyhole of room 301½ on the third floor, otherwise known as the Journal office, one might find any number of things from lost and found articles to Dale Carlisle, editor-in-chief of the 1952-53 Wa-Hi Daily Journal.

Acting as this year's front page editor was Sandra Ritchie. Assisting Sandra during the first semester was Carol Hill, while Joyce Berney was the back page editor. In order that the work be evenly distributed, the Journal staff had Marilyn Yenney as exchange editor and Elaine Bergevin and Phyllis Demory as co-business editors. Ellen Franzen, Army Barer and Gwen Rounsaville completed the staff for the first semester.

At the beginning of the year the staff started making their own stencils instead of the mimeographing department's doing it. This new job, along with the continual grind of making up the daily paper, kept minds, pencils, typewriters, Miss McGovern, and the members of the staff plenty busy. They sometimes had their heads under water.

A bright spot during the semester came when the Journal received the rating of All-American from the National Scholastic Press Association of which it is a member. This is the highest rating of the N.S.P.A. and was given the Journal for the second semester of last year.

we could have no Daily Journal.

When the semester ended Joyce Berney was made associate editor and Carol Hill then took over the back page editorship. These changes along with a fast moving tide of fifteen new reporters let the old staff members keep their heads above water the second semester. The new reports were Sharon Allen, Janice Barer, Ed Carter, Shirley Cooper, Virginia Cunningham, Dick Esteb, Virginia Gobble, Sharon Leeper, Dick Mobley, Nancy Powers, Renee Ring, Janet Ruff, Lea Stegmiller, Carol Swegle and RoxAlee Martin.

The Journal staff wishes to express thanks to its adviser, Miss McGovern. She offered much of her time, and continually gave assistance and guidance to the staff to help produce the daily paper.

Special credit should also go to LoraLee Davison, Beulah Wistron and Donna Mae Flood, who were staff typists, and to Mrs. McDonald and the girls in the mimeographing department for their part in the production of the 1952-53 Journal.

The high school orchestra under the direction of Clarence F. Cassell has grown from a beginners group to a school symphony orchestra. It has reached well balanced proportions in each of the string sections having about six in each of the violin sections, and six in the viola, cello, and bass sections plus the necessary wind and percussion instruments.

The orchestra played difficult symphonic music and made an increasing number of public performances during the year. It performed for the school plays, the Christmas program, the operetta "H.M.S. Pinafore," a spring concert with the Washington Centennial in mind and performed for various schools.

The Students Agree With Me that the Record of Our Yell Squad Spells Precision, Energy, Persistence

The Wa-Hi Yell Squad started the school year off with a "Bang" with a pep assembly the first day of school.

Newly elected members of the 1952-53 yell squad included Darlene Reiswig and Ed Carter, juniors; and Ronnie Lou Nalder and Bill Anderson, sophomores. Nancy Brown and Dale Carlisle fulfilled their duties as Yell Queen and Yell King. Little Buddy Carlisle served as mascot for the squad this year.

Under the advisorship of Mr. Wadsworth the yell squad undertook many activities. The organization of the Homecoming parade was one of the highlights of the year. This included making signs, arranging for convertibles, and inviting alumni to ride in the parade.

Several out of town trips were enjoyed by the Yell Squad during both football and basketball season.

Pep assemblies during the football and basketball seasons were planned by the yell squad to promote school spirit and sportsmanship among the students. New yells and pep songs, introduced with the assistance of the Wa-Hi band, were "Vigor and Vim" and "The Coach Yell." "Hooray for Wa-Hi" and "I'm a Devil" were among the favorite songs.

Each year the assemblies presented are improving more and more in the way of production and quality of entertainment, since students are giving full co-operation for a bigger and better assembly program. The National Assemblies which were sent from a national organization included a ventriloquist, a minerologist, and a sculptor. Boys' and Girls' Federation assemblies were given monthly with both federations enjoying quite a variety of entertainment. A number of assemblies were given by school service clubs. Each of these was previewed by a panel headed by Mr. John Anderson and Greg Cowan, Commissioner of Assemblies. At the close of the year the panel voted on the club giving the best assembly to receive the Assembly Trophy. Pep assemblies were given during the football and basketball seasons by the yell squad.

... and didn't once miss the Wa-Hilites program.

The advanced speech class put in an industrious year with two weekly radio shows and the organization of four new groups in the speech field.

The class which consisted of eighteen members did all of the program planning, management, and production. One weekly production, Wa-Hilites, consisted of the latest news around school, sports commentary, and a feature. The features were either pertinent interviews, on the spot recordings, or short dramatic productions.

A panel discussion group; a creative writing group; a dramatic group; and a special events group were formed from the ranks of the advanced speech class for the other weekly production.

I'm proud of our R.O.T.C. . . .

The R.O.T.C. completed another successful year. The Boys' Drill Team, with Cadet Lt. Col. Cowan in charge, showed steady growth and the membership was up to forty. In addition to their half-time appearances at local games and other local appearances, the drill team made a trip to Yakima and performed between halves of the Wa-Hi - Yakima football game.

The members of the drill team were presented with bright yellow citation cords worn on the left shoulder of the uniform. These, with the usual white accessories, provided a very distinctive uniform and also served to identify the members of the drill team when they marched with the regular Cadet Corps.

The Boys' Rifle Team, with SFC Stacke as coach, also had a very successful year. With scores in firing being above recent years, the team placed high in both the Hearst and Sixth Army matches. The boys also won the majority of the postal matches fired with R.O.T.C. units of other high schools.

The R.O.T.C. staff consists of Captain Benjamin B. Flathers, PMS&T, who teaches third year military and is adviser for the drill team and Sponsor Corps; SFC Donald J. Stacke, who teaches first year military and coaches the rifle team; M/Sgt. Virgil P. Wright, who teaches second year military; and SFC Ronald M. Fleshman, who is Chief Clerk and Supply Sergeant.

Club council aided and improved organizations.

The 1952-53 Club Council (composed of the president and an elected representative of each school club) was a very active organization throughout the school year. The purpose of the council is to meet and discuss the problems of the clubs and solve them in a manner agreeable to the represented clubs. Although many problems came before the council this year, they were all settled satisfactorily.

The Commissioner of Organizations, Marlene Hagen, was chairman of Club Council, and the other officers were as follows the first semester: Bob Allen, vice-chairman; Nancy Brown, secretary; Elaine Bergevin, scribe; and second semester: Dick Jacky, vice-chairman; Carolyn Reynolds, secretary; Joyce Berney, scribe. The four faculty advisers whose ideas and suggestions were very helpful to the council were Mrs. Esary, Miss McGovern, Mr. Cornelison, and Captain Flathers.

Club Council's main project of the year was the planning and organizing of the Homecoming parade. Eleven clubs entered floats in the parade competition. The winning float was built by Soromia with Legentes placing second, and Gimmel Teth taking third place.

In honor of Walla Walla's spring queen, Mary Roberts, the Club Council built a float for the "Salute to Spring" parade. Also in the spring, to conclude the year, the council was in charge of the annual Play Day activities.

The F.F.A. boys have always fulfilled their motto . . .

The Walla Walla Chapter started the year off by receiving the Master Chapter Award for being one of the outstanding chapters in the State of Washington. Max Hellberg and Arnold Knopf received the American Farmer Award for 1952. Richard Deffenbaugh, Dick Owsley, Larry Gerking, David Carey, Beryl Baker, Sylvester Morris, and David Yeend were named State Farmers. Ed Reser received the National Farm Mechanic Award.

A float was entered in the Homecoming parade by the chapter. In November the F.F.A. held its annual Barn Dance, with a large crowd attending. Elaine Bergevin was named F.F.A. Queen and Sweetheart for the coming year. During the Christmas season the Community Service Committee went to the mountains to get trees and boughs for the vocal concert. For recreation during the winter months, the chapter formed a basketball team which played other chapters in the district. Then in the month of March the F.F.A. basketball tournament was held at the Wa-Hi gym. The first part of March the chapter had its annual Parent-Son Banquet.

Forty members exhibited livestock, crops, and poultry at the Southeastern Washington Fair. The judging team took fourth place there and they received first place at Dayton, Pomeroy, Pullman, and Portland. The chapter also has a crop identification team.

The chapter operates several co-operatives. First is the grass co-operative. It operates some thirty acres of grass each year. The machine co-operative owns a complete line of farm implements. A flock of Hampshire sheep, a herd of Hampshire swine, and registered Hereford cattle are also owned by the chapter.

A delegate was sent by the chapter to the State F.F.A. convention in April, and the candidates from the chapter for the State Farmer degree attended this event. Several members of the chapter took livestock to the Spokane Junior Livestock Show in May where the chapter made a good showing.

Twenty-four new members received the degree of Greenhand this year. For the next degree, there were fifteen new members in Chapter Farmer. All the members of the chapter under the leadership of President David Carey, kept busy during the year fulfilling their motto, which is:

I Attended Homecoming . . .

Traditional and new trends were blended by the A.S.B. cabinet to present one of Wa-Hi's most outstanding Homecomings. Thursday, October 16. Shari Corkrum and Dean Derby were told in the pep assembly that they had been chosen as royalty by the student body.

Friday, there was no school, because of teachers' institute. By 12:30 eleven floats were in line to be judged and to parade at 2:00. At 6:00 the yell squad led a serpentine through town and out to the stadium. Everyone cheered himself hoarse at the exciting game with Gonzaga—final score 7-7. At halftime, Mr. Klavano crowned Shari on the field and she then presented the cup for the first place float to Soromia president, Nancy Brown. After the game, a frolic sponsored by the Eagles, was well attended.

Saturday the Homecoming Dance was the grand finale. "Blue Autumn" was portrayed by the tickets, and at the dance by a shaded blue ceiling, large blue trees, and a blue throne. Shari and Dean were again crowned, this time by John Knowles, A.S.B. president.

This very successful homecoming is one that will be long remembered. Especially significant was the large number of alumni who took part in the activities.

The Royal Blue Ball . . .

This year the Royal Blue staff presented their annual Royal Blue Ball the 21st of November. This project is sponsored in the hope of making money for the annual.

The theme "Chinatown" was prominent. Tickets were lantern shaped with green and gold dragons painted on them. The gym was decorated in a pagoda shape by fringed red crepe paper. The throne was of black and gold with a green, black, and gold dragon background. The feature that attracted the most attention was lighting by Chinese lanterns. A large crowd danced to the music of Gene Tennyson's band.

The annual editor, Carol Neisess, crowned the royalty at intermission. Junior High girls in Chinese costumes carried small gold pillows with the crowns on them. Doris Jolstead had been selected as "Empress" by the student body while Lora Lee Davison and Sue Borum completed the court.

This was one of the most successful Royal Blue dances in years, both socially and financially.

F. F. A. Barn Dance . . .

The annual F. F. A. Barn Dance, held November 7, was attended by 75 couples. The ceiling and sides of the gym were transformed by blue and gold crepe paper—F. F. A. colors. An old black buggy and saddles hanging from the rafters added atmosphere as did an electric horse—10c a ride.

Before intermission everyone did a grand march to lead up to the exciting moment when the F. F. A. Sweetheart would be announced. The boys of the local chapter had chosen Elaine Bergevin for this honor and she was officially crowned by David Carey, F. F. A. president.

Cider and doughnuts were served to the dancers. Music was furnished by the Walla Walla Wranglers and both ballroom and square dancing were done.

The boys put a lot of energy into this dance and were well rewarded by the effects. Elaine reigned for the entire year and was an honorary member at F. F. A. functions.

... and the Sadie Hawkins

Once again on the evening of Friday, February 13, Sadie Hawkins and Lil' Abner in the form of G.S.C., opened the doors of their gaily adobe, to climax another annual Twirp Week.

Black boots with couples' names, adorned the walls, carrying out the theme of the tickets. At various locations, one could be greeted by the laughing face of Daisy Mae, due to the display of artistic abilities.

Highlight of the evening was the crowning of Everett Beck as King. At a cleverly constructed throne, consisting of a saddle over a bale of straw, King Everett was granted his wish, which was the extension of twirp season throughout February.

The Wa-Hi Mountaineers provided music at its best for the large crowd of costumed dancers.

The students had many various activities outside of school . . .

As in past years the Shuffle Shop had an enjoyable year of social entertainment for its many members. Numerous parties were held and one of the most memorable was the annual "Hobo Dance" where Tom Leonard and Cynthia Valentine were chosen Hobo King and Queen. Another party to be remembered was the annual "March of Dimes" dance which carried out a western theme with proceeds going to the March of Dimes.

Decorations and the fountain were taken care of by the school service clubs during the nine school months. The decorations at Christmas time were considered the best of the year with the center of interest being a beautiful Christmas tree put up in the social room. The club which gave the most service to the Shuffle Shop was given a plaque at the close of the year. This was the seventh year a club received the honor.

A new method of selecting the Shuffle Shop commissioner was put into effect this year. Instead of the A.S.B. president appointing a senior as commissioner and the commissioner in turn selecting a representative from each of the four classes, the members of the club elected three commissioners. Each of the three commissioners served for a period of three months with no underclass representative. The new method proved to be quite satisfactory and will be continued in the future.

Yvonne Haupt, Harold Heiser, and Barbara Becker, the three commissioners of the Shuffle Shop, along with Mrs. Walker of the Y.W.C.A., were the ones responsible for organizing the successful 1952-53 activities.

Our varsity again brought state

For the second consecutive year the Wa-Hi football team completed the gridiron season undefeated, and in the minds of all loyal Wa-Hi fans were again State Champions. The record at the close of the season was 8 wins, 0 losses, one tie with the Gonzaga Bullpups of Spokane and a resulting tie with them for the Columbia Basin Conference title. This made a 20-game streak with no losses.

The 1952 Wa-Hi Blue Devils piled up a total of 254 points while their opponents had a total of 40. The Devils averaged 28 points per game to only 4 for the opposition. In the final Associated Press poll the Blue Devils finished second to the Everett Seagulls after leading the first half of the season until the Gonzaga game.

In their first game of the season the Blue Devils ran to a 34-6 victory over the Pasco Bulldogs at Borleske Field, as Dean Derby, Clayton Young, and Stan Dicus ran for three of the touchdowns. In this game, Don Scholl proved his offensive ability but being injured was unable to play the rest of the season. Passing for a 69% completion record and two six-pointers was Bob Cox. Bob's receiver was Don Hartwig, "the Wigger," who caught both touchdown passes.

The second contest of the year saw both Bob Cox and Dean Derby run wild as Wa-Hi traveled to the Appleland and smothered the Wenatchee Panthers, 31-0. Cox, in addition to passing for another 69% completion record, ran for three touchdowns with his optional play. Derby made Wa-Hi's longest run of the season with a 99-yard run from scrimmage for a touchdown. The Blue Devils' other TD was made by Clayton Young, and Derby kicked one extra point.

In a game that was supposed to prove tough, the boys from Walla Walla traveled to Spokane and shanghaied the John Rogers' Pirates, 26-0. A 27-yard Cox to Derby aerial scored the first six points for Wa-Hi. Tony Hepler showed his first action to the fans in this game as he scored the next two touchdowns on runs of eight and 23 yards. Wa-Hi's final score came with 10 seconds remaining in the game as Cox sneaked over from the 1-inch line.

The Wa-Hi vs. Sunnyside game saw the Blue Devils' defense prove its worth as the Devils blanked the Grizzlies 30-0. Looking good in the line were Shorty Meek, John Knowles, and Bill Till, three senior members of this year's rough and tough team. Wa-Hi was held to only nine points in the first half, but showed they could play football in the second half. Dean Derby ran his number 44 over the last white stripe twice in the third quarter, and big Nat Vale fell on a Blue Devil fumble in the Sunnyside end zone in the fourth quarter for three touchdowns in the second half.

The boys in Blue were up to their highest peak of the season when they took the Bombers from the atomic city of Richland 28-7. Wa-Hi had to come from behind for the first time during the year when Richland racked up one TD in the first quarter. This was a battle of two undefeated teams as Richland hadn't been beaten until the Blue Devils pulled the trick. Tony Hepler made two of Wa-Hi's touchdowns with Bob Cox and Dean Derby each making one.

The Homecoming game with the Gonzaga Bullpups of Spokane ended the Blue Devils' bid for an unbeaten and untied season. In the best game of the year, from the spectators' view, they saw the Bullpups tie the Blue Devils 7-7. Gonzaga's passing and Wa-Hi's running were evenly matched. In the first half it was all Wa-Hi as the Devils were stopped four times within the Bullpups 20 yard line. Dave Klicker was the only bright point in the game as far as the Wa-Hi rooters were concerned. The little fullback caught an 18 yard heave from Cox for Wa-Hi's only score. In the second half Gonzaga countered with an offensive of their own. Capitalizing on a Wa-Hi fumble late in the fourth quarter, a pass advanced the ball to the one foot line, where it was pushed over for a Gonzaga touchdown.

The following week saw the Devils madder than the Devil as they traveled to Spokane to play the North Central Indians. There they gained their lost prestige with a 26-7 win. Don Hartwig had a field day against the Indians as he made several spectacular catches in the course of the game. Tony Hepler led the Devils' running attack with Dean Derby and Clayton Young as able assistants. Dave Klicker again pulled off the Klicker special for his second touchdown.

Many Wa-Hi fans journeyed to Yakima to see the Blue Devils again win "The Little Brown Jug" from the Pirates. Wa-Hi had two touchdowns before the game was five minutes old and went on to win the game 33-7. Shorty Meek, Bill Till, and John Hergert stood out in the Devils' defense, as they held the Pirates to only 7 points. Tony Hepler with two TD's and Dean Derby with three ran through holes in the Pirates' line to score all of Wa-Hi's points.

On Armistice Day in their last game of the season, the Blue Devils scored a large number of points in downing the Lewis and Clark Tigers, 39-6. In Coach Fletcher's opinion this was the best game of the season for the Devils as they made most of their points in the first half, and then gave the fans a preview of next season's Blue and White footballers. A 72-yard punt returned by Clayton Young highlighted the game as Young showed he was one of Wa-Hi's best open field sprinters. A passing game, though, gave the Blue Devils most of their points, with Cox aeriels going into the end zone for TD's and one of Phil Stoller's aeriels going for Wa-Hi's final touchdown.

The Blue Devils dominated the Columbia Basin League statistical records with Bob Cox and Don Hartwig setting five new records between them and the team as a whole setting three. Cox established new records for total offense yardage and passing yardage. He also set a new percentage of pass completions with a .516 percentage. Hartwig, with 19 receptions, broke the previous high record and his total yardage of 328 also set a new record. The team's passing, rushing, and total offense cracked the records set last year.

In the way of individual honors, Bill Till and Lorn Weitz were chosen co-captains, with Shorty Meek receiving the Inspirational Player award. Cox and Hartwig were named to the All-State team as quarterback and end, respectively, while Dean Derby and Bill Till were named as alternates. Box Cox was also chosen by Scholastic magazine as one of four best prep quarterbacks in the United States when he was picked for the magazine's All-American team.

...while the B and freshman football...

The B squad football team, under the able direction of Coach Boots Wooten, ended their schedule with 4 wins, 3 losses, and a tie. The team showed just what they could do when the chips were down by defeating Elgin, a highly rated Oregon High School, in the final game of the season, with Bob Becker, a 135-lb. junior fullback, scoring all the Imps' points and the line doing exceptionally well.

The wins were taken from Pasco, Waitsburg, Touchet, and Elgin. Waitsburg tied the Baby Devils, and Pomeroy, Kennewick, and Pasco outscored them.

Bob Becker, George Sullivan, Gordon Gradwohl, and Allen Wetzel composed the backfield while Gerwyn Jones, Dick McBride, Laurin Drake, Ben Colley, James Esters, Ronald Zumwalt, and Kenny Underwood formed the offensive line. Andy Anderson and Louis Riley were linebackers on defense.

Midway in the season, because of injuries to a number of the B squaders, Dick Mobley, Bob Altergott, and Don McCauley were brought down to the B squad from the varsity. These three started the last four games and played both offensively and defensively.

The freshman football squad played a total of 6 games during this '52-'53 season, winning 3 and losing 3. The wins were earned from Pasco, Pendleton, and Mac-Hi. Losses were suffered from Hermiston, La Grande, and Touchet.

The first string backfield, under the watchful eye of Coach Cal Boyes, consisted of Howard Aldrich, Wesley Farley, Richard Wright, and Robin Beck. Other team members who saw a great deal of backfield action were Johnny Stewart, Tom Page, Joe Dancer, and Richard Anderson.

The line was put through its exercises by Coach Chuck McBride. The first string was composed of Lowell Davenport, Melvin Hill, Harold Walters, Carl Gardner, Dave Sherwood, Neil Oldridge, and Roger Mercado. Jim George, Norman Munsey, and Wes Carney also saw considerable action on the line. Freshmen managers were Mike Morris and Don Jones.

The B squad basketball team wound up their season with a 10 win-9 loss record. The all-sophomore squad, coached by Felix Fletcher, played other B squads of A league schools, varsity squads of B league schools, and city league teams consisting of high school juniors and seniors.

Coach Fletcher's first five was composed of Bob Beckel and Wayne Lee at guards, Lee Baker at center, and Allen Wetzel and Don McCauley at forwards. Bucky Jentsch, a regular sophomore center, was elevated to the varsity early in the season. Bucky was averaging better than 10 points per game on the B squad.

Bob Beckel ended the season with high point honors followed by Allen Wetzel. Reliable substitutes were Duane Belleville, Dick Hein, Charles Herrin, Gerwyn Jones, Charles Langton, Bill Kirkman, and Gary Todd. Managers were Conrad Gettman and James Esters.

The freshman basketball team finished their 1952-53 schedule, winning 12 and losing 10 games. Coached by Cal Boyes, the frosh took two games from Dayton, two from Pasco, two from Waukegan, two from Touchet, one from Pendleton, one from Pioneer Junior High, one from Hermiston, and one from Motor Supply. Three games were lost to St. Pat's, three to Pendleton, one to Hermiston, one to Pioneer Junior High, one to Pasco, and one to Motor Supply.

The frosh's first five were Tom Page and Richard Huff at guards, Richard Anderson at center, and Lowell Davenport and Bill Stewart at forwards. The second five were John Stewart and Warren Weaver at guards, Neil Oldrich at center, and Robin Beck and Dick Hanford at forwards. The remaining squad members were Howard Aldrich, Joe Cook, Don McCowan, Joe Dancer, Richard Mercado, and Dave Sherwood.

Jerry McVay, a regular starter and fifth in scoring honors, had an appendix operation during the middle of the season and couldn't finish the season. Richard Huff led the entire squad in scoring honors. He was followed by Richard Anderson and Bill Stewart.

... to have a record that equals

The Wa-Hi Blue Devils compiled a very enviable record during their 1952-53 basketball season. The team, coached by Boots Wooten, consisted of regular starters Bob Cox, center; Don Hartwig and Bill Till, forwards; Dave Klicker and Bob Becker, guards; and as valuable substitutes, Clyde Catron, Eddie Epstein, Bob Fouts, Jim Jeppe, and Al Jentsch. In twenty regular season games the Blue Devils ran up enough points for a 16-4 record. Against tournament competition Wa-Hi won five straight games in sub-district and district play, only to lose their first two games at the state tournament.

Over the regular season Wa-Hi's four losses came at the hands of Richland, Lewiston, North Central and the W.S.C. frosh. The Devils lost to Richland by one point, 51-52; to Lewiston in overtime, 64-66; to North Central, 47-50. Wa-Hi avenged each of these losses, however, by walloping the Bombers, 45-32; the Indians, 51-37; and the Bengal Tigers, 58-48. Against the W.S.C. frosh, Wa-Hi lost 39-49. This was the second time a Wooten quintet has been beaten by college competition.

In addition to the wins mentioned above, Wa-Hi beat Clarkston, Yakima, Wenatchee, Pullman and Pasco twice, while also racking up wins against Lewis and Clark, John Rogers, and West Valley, all of Spokane. Some of the more imposing scores were against Wenatchee, 70-49, and Pullman, 61-47, while the closest was against Pasco, 46-45.

Wa-Hi won the sub-district tournament in Pullman, which they entered by winning three straight games. Their wins were over Colville, 74-48; Pullman, 70-64, and Clarkston, 55-47.

In the district tournament held in Walla Walla, the Devils again won the championship. They beat Omak, 68-43; and Clarkston for the fourth time, 55-37. Bob Cox, captain of the Wa-Hi team, stole the show for Wa-Hi in these two tournaments. He averaged 21.6 points per game in the five contests.

The competition was a little tougher at state, and the defending champions lost their first game to Bremerton, who placed seventh in the tournament, 51-44; and the following night to Snohomish, who placed eighth in the tournament, 57-54.

This was the third time in their twenty-three trips to Seattle that the Blue Devils were eliminated in two games, and the first time a team coached by Boots Wooten failed to place. Other than competition, height was the main factor in Wa-Hi's losses at state, as the Bremerton team averaged over 6'2" per man compared to the Wa-Hi average of 5'11" per man.

At the end of the season, and including the first five tournament tussles, Wa-Hi scored a total of 1397 points or 55.9 per contest to 1152 for the opposition or a 46.1 average. In the final Associated Press basketball poll of the year, the Blue Devils placed second to the Elma Eagles. After the state tournament, the Blue Devils had won twenty-one games and lost six, for a .778 percentage.

Bob Cox dominated individual honors of the team. He received all-state mention, placing on the All-State third team. Not counting state tourney play, Bob scored 452 points for the season, averaging 18.1 points per game. Don Hartwig with 237 and Dave Klicker with 220 were the other Wa-Hi players to get over 200 points for the season. Bill Till hit the magic 200 mark counting his points made in the state classic.

Skiing is becoming a popular sport among the Wa-Hi students.

Skiing, though not a major sport, is rapidly becoming active in Wa-Hi and other high schools of the state. This year the Wa-Hi Ski Team participated in two state meets, one at Wenatchee and a home meet at Spout Springs. They also participated in one international meet in Rossland, B. C. The whole team went four-way, which means they were in all four of the events: jumping, cross-country, slalom, and downhill.

Advisers of the group were Mr. Wadsworth and Mr. Haase, while members were Jack Brown, Bud Demaray, Jim Shepherd, Phil Stoller, and Ken Underwood.

To both girls and boys, tumbling proved to be a satisfying activity.

Under the supervision of Miss Rhea Gray the Girls' Tumbling Team was so enlarged this year that the group was divided into two teams, a beginners' and an advanced team. Practices were held two nights a week after school, the beginners on Thursday and the advanced on Tuesday.

The Girls' Tumbling Team performed during halftime of one of the Wa-Hi basketball games and at the Physical Education Demonstration. They also performed at the Odd Fellows' Home at Christmas time. Some of the skills performed were forward roll, backward roll, butterball, handspring, handstand roll, flip, front chest roll, back chest roll, Eskimo roll, dive rolls, fishflop, as well as many balance stunts.

The teams which totaled twenty-seven in number ended the year with great satisfaction from learning new stunts and gaining experience.

Tumbling for boys which replaced boxing was a new activity at Wa-Hi this year for those boys who did not turn out for any other winter sport. Turnouts for the tumbling team began about the middle of November with full organization by January.

Under the direction of Coach McBride, the team had a very successful first year. The boys displayed their unique tumbling abilities at two performances. One of these was at the Sub-District Basketball Tournament and the other at the Physical Education Demonstration. Included on the program were forward and backward flips, forward and backward hand springs, assist back flips, forward and backward rolls, head springs, and head stands. The team used a spring board which aided them in some of their very thrilling stunts.

Though tumbling was a new sport, the Boys' Tumbling Team proved to be of great enjoyment not only to those taking part but to their audiences.

The Girls of Wa-Hi were fortunate

The girls' physical education department endeavored to provide a well rounded program of conditioning exercises, rhythmic activities, posture training, individual and team sports for every girl. These were adapted to her needs, as shown by a required physical examination.

The outdoor program included speedball in the fall, while tennis, archery, and softball enthusiasts had their choice of spring sports.

Volleyball and basketball were the most popular sports of the indoor season from November through March. Freshmen boys' and girls' classes were combined once each week throughout this period for square dancing and mixers, while the sophomore girls learned many international folk dances.

The highlight of the entire program was the annual physical education demonstration which was held March 6 to show parents and other members of the community the work of the departments of physical education. A special interest this year was the freshmen mass exercises under the direction of Mrs. Hammeran, exchange teacher from Germany. These exercises were from Germany, and Mrs. Hammeran also introduced a game called brentball which is something like softball.

The girls' athletic association sponsors all the intramural programs for girls. Volleyball, speedball, basketball, and softball are the team sports. Table tennis, badminton, and tennis are the individual sports. Managers of these sports were Priscilla McBride, Jackie Hill, Marian Ulrich, Golda Lockard, Betty Baldwin, Verice Noble, and Pearl Livengood, respectively. Girls earned a sports letter by participating in the intramurals or by managing them. A special occasion always looked forward to by the club was the W.S.C. play day in which the girls were invited up to the campus for a day of fun and entertainment.

Tumbling, an after-school team sport, was directed by Miss Rhea Gray. There were two teams this year, a beginner's team and an advanced team.

The sneak was fun for those sneaking . . .

On May 14 nearly 200 members of the graduating class went to Bingham Springs for the annual senior sneak. Six large trucks and some cars left the Wa-Hi gymnasium at 6:00 a.m. with eager students, faculty members, and parents.

Swimming, horseback riding, hiking, playing baseball, table tennis and horseshoes were some of the activities. Another activity taken up by a few daring participants was fighting the Umatilla River in a 10-man rubber raft!

The time to return home came too soon for the large group, but it was a day thoroughly enjoyed and one that will be remembered by all.

... after the operetta had been given successfully.

The third annual Wa-Hi operetta—this year Gilbert and Sullivan's "H.M.S. PINAFORE,"—was presented April 30, May 1 and May 2 by the vocal department. Mr. McGrath and Mr. Alexander directed the large cast and Mr. Cassell directed the Wa-Hi orchestra which accompanied many of the songs. Jack Brown was the student director and Chita Cousins, the accompanist.

Leads were taken by: Dean Derby, Captain; Stan Hastings, Sir Joseph Porter; John Knowles, Ralph Rackstraw; Peggy Nessel and Carlene Frank, Josephine; Donna Lobdell and Pat Light, Buttercup; Bob Spies, Dick Deadeye; Jackie Struthers, Cousin Hebe; Dick Jones, boatswain; and Maurice Blake, boatswain's mate. Due to the many performances and the many qualified performers, several of the roles were double-cast with each person being in two performances. The members of the choir alternated in composing the rest of the cast.

Four performances were given; one for the eighth-grade visitation day and the other three in the evening for the public. These performances were well-received with all enjoying the production.

The Blue Devils

After six straight track meet victories the Wa-Hi Blue Devils, coached by Felix Fletcher and Chuck McBride and led by Dean Derby and Dave Klicker, edged out the defending champion Clover Park to win the championship in the 43rd annual state inter-scholastic track and field meet at Rogers Field in Pullman.

Dean Derby, Dave Klicker, Bob Johnson, John Knowles, and Ed Carter were finalists in the state classic, but Dick Jansen in the discus and Johnson in the 440-yard dash lost out in the preceding preliminaries.

Derby led the scoring with nine points by winning the 220-yard dash and placing second in the 100-yard dash, while Klicker followed close behind with eight points by winning the high hurdles and placing third in the low hurdles. They also ran in the relay placing third to cinch the state title. Ed Carter and Klicker failed to place in the high jump.

To start the season 16 schools from Washington, Oregon, and Montana competed in the W.S.C. Invitational meet at the state college. Wa-Hi won the meet with Derby setting a new record in the 75-yard dash, Johnson winning the 330-yard dash, Klicker placing first in the 70-yard high hurdles and second in the 110-yard low hurdles, and the relay team taking second in the 880. Second to Wa-Hi's 25½ points was Great Falls of Montana with 22.

In the 11th annual Wa-Hi relays ten teams from the surrounding district joined the host Blue Devils on their home field. Wa-Hi for the second straight year won the relays with 60½ points to LaGrande's 42. Two new records were set by Wa-Hi, one in the 880 relay with a team composed of Derby, Klicker, Johnson, and Knowles, and the other in the shuttle low hurdles set at a new distance with the four man squad of Klicker, Derby, Dave Casper, and Stanley Langton. In all the Blue Devils won four first places and tied for another.

The Wa-Hi trackmen took nine firsts in 16 events in the 26th annual Yakima Invitational defeating Richland, Ellensburg, Yakima, and John Rogers of Spokane. John Rogers with 32½ points was second to Wa-Hi with 63½. Derby tied the 100-yard dash record and Klicker set new records in the 110-yard high hurdles and 180-yard low hurdles, both at new distances. Other individual wins were Johnson in the 440, Jansen in the discus, and Derby in the 220. Wa-Hi won both extra events of the meet, the Foster Medley with the team of Gordon Page, Shorty Meek, Ed Carter, and Roger Burkhart; and the hop, step, and jump by Don Hartwig.

Wa-Hi won their fourth straight victory of the season by defeating Yakima and Richland in the Richland Triangular meet. The Blue Devils scored more points than the other two entries combined by winning ten first places out of 14 events. Klicker and Derby both set new Bomber Field records in the high hurdles and 220.

Competing against five other schools and scoring a total of 82 points the Wa-Hi thin-clads won the Southeastern Washington district track meet at Borleske Stadium. Klicker and Derby each cracked marks that had stood for 17 years, Klicker with a time of 14.9 in the 120-yard high hurdles, and Derby with a time of 21.8 in the 220. Wa-Hi captured nine of the 14 first places and placed at least third in every event on the program.

At Spokane's Hart Field the Wa-Hi Blue Devils finished first with 50 points in the 4th annual Tri-District meet by placing in all but three events and taking first place in five. Out of the seven new records set, Wa-Hi had part in three of them. Derby set a new record in the 220 and had part in the relay team new record of 1:32.4 as did Klicker who set the other Wa-Hi record in the low hurdles. The six Blue Devils who qualified for the state meet were Derby, Klicker, Johnson, Knowles, Jansen, and Carter. Everett Beck who tied for third in the pole vault, lost the coin toss for the right to compete at Pullman.

At the close of the season 17 letter awards, two of which were to managers, were presented members of the team and Dean Derby was chosen honorary captain by his teammates for the 1953 track team.

The '53 Baseball

The 1953 Wa-Hi baseball team went through a regular season of 14 games, winning five and losing nine. Two pre-season games with St. Pats and the Prison Juniors were won very handily as the Blue Devils held both opposing teams to no runs and few hits.

The team, coached by Coach Boyes, consisted of starters Bob Fouts, Clyde Catron, Phil Stoller, Bob Becker in the infield; Lee Baker, Bob Beckel, Darrell Morton, in the outfield, Jerry Young behind the plate; Bill Till, Dick Mobley, John Hergert, Bucky Jentzsch alternating in the pitcher's box; and reliable substitutes Chuck Branson, Laray Davidson, Jim Hopkins, Gerwyn Jones and Wayne Lee. Managers this year were Paul Dague and Doug Seely.

Only two graduating seniors held down key positions on the team while the rest of the squad was composed of sophomores and juniors. Pitcher Bill Till and catcher Jerry Young were the two leaving the Blue Devil stickmen at the close of the season. An all sophomore outfield and a partially sophomore infield will give the Devils a solid foundation for the next two years with more promising players coming from the B squad.

The first regular season game found Wa-Hi in the winner's seat as the Blue Devils downed Pendleton 6-5. Till went a full ten innings before breaking a 5-5 tie with a single to left field.

Traveling to Richland the Devils suffered their first set-back at the hands of a strong Bomber nine by a score of 7-5. Although runs were plentiful, hits were scarce with Richland copping four from Hergert while Morton and Baker each smashed out one against Richland's hurler.

Clarkston was next to fall to the stickmen as Wa-Hi hitters went wild collecting nine hits to Clarkston's six in a 12-8 ball game. Phil Stoller had a perfect batting day hitting safely three for three.

Yakima topped the Wa-Hi team 9-0 in a fine well played ball game with the Pirates collecting seven hits to the Blue and White's three. Becker and Stoller stood out on defensive ball play.

VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM—(Identification of picture at bottom of page eight) Second row: Coach Boyes, J. Young, J. Hopkins, B. Beckel, C. Branson, J. Hergert, B. Fouts, C. Catron, L. Baker, P. ## Team had a fair season.

Wa-Hi again topped Clarkston with Blue Devil nine standing behind big John Hergert as he pitched an 8-0 shut out over the Bantams. Becker hit safely twice and also scored twice.

Traveling to Yakima the team felt defeat again as the Pirates gathered two runs in the first inning and held their lead for the six remaining ones. Little Wayne Lee's big double in the seventh proved of no avail as the rally was cut short with two strikeouts which followed.

Lewiston pitchers had a real "May Day" as the Devil nine was held to one hitters in a double header at Borleske Stadium. Baker wrecked a perfect no - no game with a clean single in the first game and Jones did the same in the second.

Pendleton then fell 8-6 as Wa-Hi traveled to the Buckeroo town. The Blue Devils collected ten hits with Young getting a homer and a single.

Wa-Hi surprised the Lewiston club by invading their hometown and winning the first game of a two-night double header, but then dropping the second 3-1. Hergert pitched the 5-3 game.

Two games with Kennewick were lost as the Devils slid through the closing games.

A 2-1 defeat at the hand of the St. Pats Irish ended the season for the Blue Devils. Both teams were limited to three hits but runs scored on errors and quick thinking.

Golf was another spring sport at Wa-Hi . . .

The 1953 golf team coached by John Klumb was composed of five members, Bob Brunton, Reed Clark, Gerald Davis, Dick Gohlman, and Ed Jaquins.

Out of the five tournaments entered by the Wa-Hi divot diggers, they placed second in two and placed third in three. Teams the Blue Devils competed with were Colfax, Clarkston, Lewiston, Moscow, and Pomeroy. At the close of the season the team placed third in the Bi-State League Championship tourney at Moscow three strokes behind first place. Though the team will have only two members remaining next year after the graduation of Brunton, Davis, and Jaquins it will be a start for a winning season in 1954.

... while assemblies were being presented regularly.

The assembly program was well carried out in the spring with a large number of students taking part. The second N.H.S. tapping, the operetta preview, the campaign assemblies, the yell squad try-outs, the exchange assembly, and the Girls' Federation assemblies were some of those presented.

Out of the four classes the freshman class was the only one to perform before the student body. They gave their assembly on Play Day and both students and faculty were proud of their fine showing.

All the assemblies this year were carefully planned and prepared with the Wa-Hi students seeing only the best entertainment possible.

Play Day was a huge success . . .

The freshman class assembly followed by a short military review started the Play Day activities on May 8. After the review a mock track meet with competition between the four classes was held on the military parade grounds. The "meet" included three relay races: sack, peanut on knife, and three-legged with ribbons going to the winners. Next on the schedule was the Wa-Hi exchange assembly and then the concessions on Summers Field. Besides the food concessions, the clubs provided entertainment booths such as a pie throw, portrait sketching, and fortune telling. In the afternoon the students were dismissed to attend the District Track meet which was the last event on the day's agenda.

On the Wa-Hi tennis courts to the strains of a five piece orchestra and beneath a starlit sky, students danced the evening away at the Military Ball.

A brilliant fanfare announced the time for the coronation ceremonies which saw Cecilia Broome crowned honorary Lt. Colonel. She and the honorary Captains, Barbara Becker, Nancy Brown, Carole Hall, and Doris Jolstead, were escorted through an aisle of extended sabers, presented by the R.O.T.C. Majors and Company Commanders.

"Club '53" and "April in Paris" were the themes of the two class dances.

The Senior Ball which was the final dance of the 1952-53 school year was held in the girls' gym on May 29 from 8:30 to 11:30. The theme of the dance, "Club '53 at the Starlight Roof," was carried out effectively with decorations of a blue false ceiling covered with silver stars. Outlined skyscrapers around the walls added to the illusion of a mid-town roof garden.

At intermission Sharon Davenport was crowned queen of the ball by Stanley Hastings, senior class president. Those chosen as princesses were Shari Fain, Marlene Hagen, Yvonne Haupt, and Claudia Waggoner. Only seniors and their dates were invited to the annual affair which proved to be a successful one.

Darlene Reiswig was crowned queen of this year's Junior Prom, "April in Paris," on April 24. Her court consisted of Sharon Allen, Annette Cote, Mary Jane Milbrath, and Pearl Livengood. These five girls chosen by the junior boys were crowned at intermission by Eddie Epstein, junior class president.

Gene Tennyson's band provided music for the large number of couples attending who danced through perfumed air spraying from a fountain and under a huge replica of the Eiffel Tower. To make it a complete Parisian atmosphere along with the sidewalk cafe, outdoor shops lined the side of the dance floor and painted murals of street scenes, ballet and can can dancers covered the walls.

Graduation---the Seniors, together for the last time, sang their Alma Mater.

Sunday, May 31, the baccalaureate service was given to 246 members of the senior class in the high school gymnasium. Bishop Jerome Davenport spoke on the subject. "In An Atomic Future—Faith." Also taking part in the program were Rev. Walter Gleiser, Rev. Joseph Woodord, Rev. Ray Renzema, Rev. E. T. Allen, and Rev. Luther Plankenhorn. Providing music for the service were the high school band and choir.

The sixty-first annual commencement was held the following Tuesday, June 1, at eight in the evening also in the gymnasium. Mr. Douglas V. McClane, Director of Admissions at Whitman College, gave the main address. His topic was "Continuity or Cross Purpose." No valedictory address was given because of the illness of Robert Allen, but the salutatory was presented by Janet Davis. Musical numbers were sung by the music department under the direction of Mr. McGrath. Following the presentation of scholarships, Mr. Klavano awarded Bob Brunton the Legislative Assembly Trophy, Don Hartwig and Bill Till the Best All-Around Sportsman Trophy, and Dale Carlisle the Lawrence Jacky Memorial Trophy. Diplomas were given the class of nineteen hundred fifty-three by Mr. Gerwyn Jones, president of the board of directors, and to close the program the graduating class sang the Wa-Hi alma mater.
